IN RETROSPECT AND RESOLUTION

The resignations of Lewis S. Knepper, '11 and '13 as Alumni Secretary and Jack Schock '36AB, Publicity Director came as a real loss to both the Campus and the Juniata Alumni Association. The rapid growth in the activities of the Alumni Association during the last ten years gives evidence of Mr. Knepper's real devotion to his work. He is serving as district agent for the Farm Bureau Cooperative Insurance Companies of Columbus, Ohio. Mr. Schock continues his academic career in the Dickinson Law School.

It is perhaps with some degree of trepidation that your new editorial board assumes the many responsibilities of the publication and the Association that have been so ably handled by our predecessors. The Bulletin, as the official Juniata Alumni organ, has gone a long way in its three short years to attain the place it now enjoys among other leading college alumni magazines.

Your new editorial board is resolved to continue your magazine as a mirror of college and alumni events in such a manner that we may all feel that we are ever active members of the Juniata family. Hence, in this, our initial effort, we earnestly solicit your cooperation and support in order that our aims may be realized.

Your Association has made rapid strides, and as a new college year opens, may we now look forward to even greater accomplishments toward a program which has for its keynote good fellowship in Juniata?

The Alumni Bulletin is published at Huntingdon, Pennsylvania, four times a year, January, April, July, and October by Juniata College and the Juniata College Alumni Association. Advertising rates furnished upon request. Editorial Board: Harold B. Brumbaugh, '33, Alumni Secretary; Telford B. Blough '27, Executive Committee; and Richard C. Allen, Publicity Director. All correspondence should be addressed to the Alumni Bulletin.

JUNIATA COLLEGE BULLETIN

The President Speaks

It is well known to most of our alumni that a number of changes have taken place which have necessitated a reorganization on College Hill. After a decade of service as Alumni Secretary, Lewis S. Knepper, '13, '32, resigned his position in June and concluded his work in the office on the 15th of August. The Association and the Alumni Bulletin have given deserved recognition to Mr. Knepper's work and I am glad to add my word of testimony respecting his faithful service to the Alumni Association and the College which it serves. His resignation laid upon the Executive Committee the responsibility of planning anew for the work of this office and position. After thoughtful consideration of the matter and conferences and consultation with Mr. Judy, the incoming president of the Association, the committee decided to request Harold B. Brumbaugh, '33, Assistant to the President, to accept the position of Alumni Secretary and to appoint Miss Helen McQuade as office secretary in charge of alumni matters. Mr. Brumbaugh's service for the past two years under the previous arrangement has been so satisfactory that I would have been averse to any readjustment except for the fact that very much of his work in the field and indeed through the office has necessarily involved contacts with the alumni of the College and cooperation with them. Under the new arrangement it is hoped he will be able to do more effective work in the field for the alumni and the College. Miss McQuade has been Mr. Brumbaugh's secretary during the progress of the Development Program and her knowledge of the alumni files as well as her efficiency commended her to the Executive Committee for this office responsibility.

The consideration of related problems which were suggested in the discussions of the needs of the College and alumni cooperation in its on-going led to a desire to increase the service of the College to the alumni and to develop the organization for this purpose in the most efficient manner.

For a number of years the College has been rendering a service to the alumni through the Bureau of Recommendations and it is our wish to make this service more effective and efficient. A faculty committee headed by Dr. E. S. Kiracofe has been appointed to direct this Bureau. It will aid very much if every alumnus will promptly notify the Bureau of any vacancy that occurs anywhere.

Our student solicitation has come more and more to have a relation to the alumni and we have recognized in the last few years particularly the significance of the help which our alumni have rendered in sending students to the College. Professor J. W. Yoder, '04, has been for many years serving as high school visitor presenting the claims of the College to high school students and wherever possible contacting our alumni who are teaching. This year we have employed J. Melvin Rhodes, '38 to supplement his work. In recognition of the additional work which the alumni office will lay upon Mr. Brumbaugh, we have decided to continue the services of Mr. Rhodes for the coming year.

As a phase of our wider relations to the public there has grown up in recent years a department of publicity which has endeavored to publicize not only the College but the achievements of her alumni through the Alumni Bulletin and other publications. This department during the coming year will be under the direction of Richard C. Allen, succeeding Jack Schock, '37, who has resigned to continue with his advanced study.

We are hoping that by this organization of the various phases of public relations, a number of which are directly related to the work of the Alumni Secretary, it will be possible to bring about the largest accomplishment with the least duplication and with a higher degree of efficiency.

In enlarging our offerings to the alumni through this closer integration of our service, we shall hope to encourage in them also a greater cooperation with the College.

By Charles C. Ellis, Ph.D., D.D.

A Change in Alumni Policy

All Juniataans are now members of the Association. Active membership granted to those contributing to annual major project.

Radical and significant changes have been effected in the alumni organization in order that we may move forward with increasing speed toward a worthwhile, vital, and lasting goal—that of building a more closely knit association, and more important still, an ever expanding and growing Juniata.

Highlighting the newly effected administrative revisions are two outstanding features: first, the College, by means of a definite budget allotment, now underwrites the cost of the Alumni Office and the Association; and second, the annual contributions of the members will go toward a major project to be determined by the Juniata Development Committee in conjunction with the College Board of Trustees. The Executive Committee of the Association will determine the authorized expenditures of the Association. The benefits accruing from these changes are self evident, for the contributor gives to an enduring project in the knowledge that his gift will not be used for current expenses, but rather for a lasting service. In other words we are giving toward a perpetual future rather than a passing present.

It is the plan to have the Development Committee meet just previous to the semi-annual meeting of the Board of Trustees in order to recommend to the Board what project might be most beneficial and essential for the coming year. Suggestions about worthy needs are welcome at all times from the Alumni. The Alumni have representation on this committee in the persons of Donaven R. Beachley ex'21, Hagerstown, Md.; Alumni President Will Judy '11, ex-officio; and Harold Brumbaugh '33, who is Secretary of the Committee. Suggested projects might include funds for: scholarships, memorials, building projects,

NEW FEATURES

- * Association now financed by the College.
- * Membership dues are discontinued.
- * All graduates and non graduates are members.
- * Alumni fund established—centered around major annual project and maintained solely by our contributions.
- * All active members will receive the quarterly Alumni Bulletin.
- * Names of all contributors will be listed by class in the July 1940 issue of the Bulletin.

general endowments, library books, or athletic developments. The major project for the present school year will be announced soon.

In line with assuring continued purposefulness and unity, all persons who have ever attended Juniata, whether they were graduated or not, are to be members of the general Association. It is hoped that this will create a larger and even more cooperative Juniata family. Since membership dues as such are discontinued, active membership is given to those who make any sized contribution to any college fund or purpose whatsoever. Therefore these contributions need not of necessity be made to the chosen endeavor of the year. For instance, if the major project for the year is a scholarship fund and an alumnus wishes to make some contribution in a prize or library gift, he can do so and receive proper recognition. Since the contributing efforts are centered in only one major objective annually, an alumnus will not be approached for different funds as in former years.

Recognition for active memberships will be given in the July issue of the Alumni Bulletin which is the official organ of the Association. Along with the names of the contributors will be a tabulation of class totals. The Bulletin, issued quarterly in October, January, April, and July, is sent to the active membership. To keep better informed of the current doings on College Hill may we suggest that you subscribe to the "Juniatian," weekly student newspaper, which is offered at a special subscription rate of $1.00 per school year.

Since this is a radical departure from previous alumni policies, we hope that it meets with your approval. Further, we invite you to submit at any time constructive criticism which will aid in the successful execution of these plans.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Alumni Council will hold a dinner meeting Friday evening, October 27, at 6:00 p. m. in the College Dining Hall.

At 3:00 that afternoon the Executive Committee will meet in the Alumni Office.

With two victories already chalked up Hartwick and no injuries thus far the 1939 Squad can look forward to an eventful season. Freshman contingent shows strong possibilities.

For several days about thirty football candidates have been maneuvering on the field in an effort to win a place on the starting eleven. As usual the question, "How is the team?" heard most frequently on the campus, causes one to stop and view the outlook. Since the early days of practice are advisedly devoted to conditioning and fundamentals, the view is not too clear. This, together with an unusual turnover in material, makes the season's results somewhat problematic.

Facing a loss of nine lettermen and several substitutes from a squad that was weak in reserve strength makes the task of rebuilding a well trained and co-ordinated football machine within the short pre-season training period rather difficult. The losses include such key men as Captain Tom Garner, Dan Geiser, Jake Dick, Chal Leshner and Clyde Way. Fortunately there are among the freshmen candidates a limited number of husky boys with high school experience. In this group of fifteen which comprises one-half the squad we hope to find the necessary replacements.

Captain George Weber, a veteran of three seasons, and George Sheffer, who is playing his second year, will give us adequate starting strength on the ends. Tony Reklis, coming up from the cubs, and John Cutshall, a freshman product from Huntingdon High, look very promising as understudies.

Several of these new backs have shown considerable promise with Brenner and Freeberg leading the field. Guth, Conley, and Dillen are among those who have attracted attention. An evaluation of potential qualifications for their building leads one to certain conclusions. Old Lady Luck will have to be extremely kind to us because only a few injuries may play havoc with the team. Barring injuries, the starting lineup ought to perform creditably, but the reserves, with a few exceptions, will be woefully weak. With a line that is fairly fast and heavier than usual and a backfield fast and shifty there are possibilities for developing a strong first team, provided subsequent practices produce a center who can pair up with Perry Tyson in backing up the line.

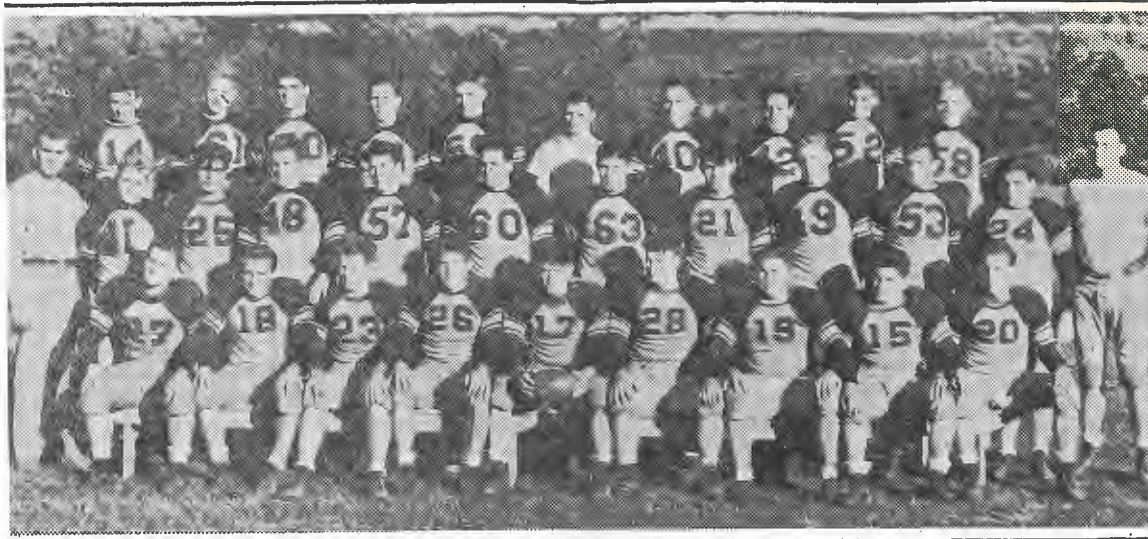

Six tackles averaging about 200 pounds are fighting it out for honors. Dick Stratton and Vic Snyder, with two years' varsity experience, are leading the field in the early season workouts. Pushing them for recognition are three promising freshmen: Hollis Zwicker, Bill Moses and Walter Joachim. Stafford Weeks, a sophomore newcomer to the squad, is also in the running.

Pre-season indications point to these positions as being well fortified, particularly after experience has taught them her knowledge and effected her training.

The center of the line presents several major problems. Graduation, ineligibility and withdrawals, the nemesis of a football coach have left us without a returning letterman for these positions. Three sophomores will be given the call at guard. Dave Nettleton, only freshman "J" man last year, will be shifted from tackle; Bill Bonsell, who played bang up ball in the final game of the season against Lebanon Valley will be given the other assignment with Louis Valenzi as alternate. Kenneth Kochendorfer, a freshman from Lewistown, has been showing improvement and will be used as a substitute.

As the opening game approaches perhaps the greatest need is at center. The recent return of Al Carino to the squad will help strengthen this weakness. Gabe Chiodo, the squad's Caruso, has shown himself capable on the line but is not fast enough for the more open defense. Walter Joachim may be shifted from tackle to help plug the hole.

The starting backfield is light, fast, shifty and well equipped to go places. Ed Grega, the remaining member of last year's "Pony Express"—Geiser and Grega, will call signals with Al Leopold as a running mate. This combination ought to prove very troublesome to the opponents, especially in the open. Perry Tyson, another veteran, will fill the blocking back position and back up the line of defense. Jack Strayer, who was lost to the team last year through injury, will be on the wing with Clyde Pentz acting as alternate. Substitutes for the backfield are another major concern and must be developed from the freshman candidates.

Captain Weber has proven himself a capable and popular leader. Enthusiasm in the squad runs high and, if dominated by a spirit that expects victory, we'll make it tough for somebody.

Dan Geiser, veteran four year letterman while at Juniata, returns to the campus this fall to continue his graduate work preparatory to entering the teaching profession. Before his graduation last June Dan had earned his varisty letter in football, baseball, basketball, and track. In addition to his course schedule he will assist the coaching staff in all intercollegiate sports.

AROUND THE CAMPUS

Leadership Conference

The 13th annual week-end camp of the Student Leaders' Conference was held at Camp Kanessatake, Spruce Creek, over Saturday and Sunday, September 9 and 10. This conference is probably more familiarly known as the Camp Myler Group which was started by the Campus religious organizations in 1927 to discuss the religious needs of the Campus. By 1929 the Camp Myler conference had grown to include all organizations on the Hill for an informal discussion session on student problems with College administrative heads and faculty. This method of interchange of ideas is unique in American Colleges and many constructive suggestions are received each year to be submitted to the President and the faculty for discussion and decision.

Outstanding on the program for this year was the planned manner in which all leaders representing each phase of student life at Juniata were given an opportunity to present and discuss their immediate problems and suggestions for solution.

Sunday's Church service was conducted at the Camp by President Ellis.

Campus Improvements

Several much needed improvements on the Campus and in the College plant have been completed with the opening of the current semester.

Outstanding among the necessary maintenance projects are a new brick walk on the South Campus between Founders and Oneida Halls, a new steam line from the power plant to the new dorm and a new refrigeration plant in the kitchen.

Among other innovations is the establishment of a student residence on 18th Street next to the tennis courts in what was formerly an apartment house, a permanent student residence. Until now the house has been rented by the College to married faculty couples. The newest student residence has been named the Geiger House in honor of the late Mrs. Mary S. Geiger of Philadelphia who endowed the first professorial chair at Juniata, now held by Dr. Calvert N. Ellis, Professor of Biblical studies.

Student Conference Campus Improvements College Opening Convocation New Faculty Dr. Van Ormer

Freshman Registration

Opening the 64th year of classes, the freshman class was admitted by the College on Monday, September 11. For the next three days the students were well occupied by conferences with the Deans of Men and Women, a series of placement tests and campus trips under the direction of members of the student leadership conference, more popularly known as the Camp Myler group.

Freshman week saw a number of informal social affairs to aid the Class of 1943 in getting acquainted with each other and with life on College Hill. A highlight of the Week was the "at home" given by President and Mrs. Ellis.

Special talks were given by President Ellis, Dr. Calvert N. Ellis, Dr. Norman J. Brumbaugh, Registrar Russel Stambaugh, Dr. Kenneth L. Smoke, and Lloyd Bergstresser, '40, president of the Senate, student advisory board.

Convocation

The annual Convocation Service for students, faculty and friends of the College was held Sunday evening, September 17 in the Stone Church on the Campus.

President Ellis was able to secure the Rev. Dr. Allen C. Shue, pastor of the Fifth Street Methodist Episcopal Church, Harrisburg, as the guest preacher.

The Rev. Dr. Shue built his message around the thought that we "must follow Christ in a world that is all too willing to criticize those things which we hold most sacred."

New Staff Appointments

Two new faculty members and one new administrative officer have been added to the College staff for the coming year. These appointments are in addition to those of J. Melvin Rhodes and Richard C. Allen mentioned by President Ellis in his message.

Miss Angela Ross joins the English Department with the opening of the current College semester. The new Instructor received her A.B. Degree from Radcliff College, Cambridge, Massachusetts, in June 1937. This past summer Miss Ross was granted her Masters Degree from the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor.

In the Department of Business Administration, Mr. Frank C. Sargent, formerly of the Bergen County Junior College faculty, assumes the position of Instructor in Economics. Mr. Sargent received his A.B. degree from Amherst College, Amherst, Massachusetts in June 1926 and later took graduate work at the Harvard Business School. He was granted his Masters degree in Business Administration from New York University in June 1938. For a number of years the new Instructor was associated in the brokerage and investment business in New York City.

Mr. Fred Livingston succeeds Mr. Edward R. Weber as Assistant to the Treasurer, Prof. O. R. Myers. He received his A.B. degree from Manchester College, North Manchester, Indiana, in June 1938.

Dr. Van Ormer

Although Dr. A. B. Bunn Van Ormer, Professor Emeritus of Philosophy and Education does not have his full physical strength he has been able to take part in a few College functions. Dr. Van Ormer observes his seventieth birthday on October 16.

SON COLLEGE HILL

Alumni Help

When the school bell rang on college hill this fall, new faces appeared on the campus giving both faculty members and older students a feeling of anxiety to find out just what these new people were like. The type of high school student who decides in favor of Juniata depends upon the kind of appeal the college has for him. His idea or knowledge of the institution must of necessity come from observation if he has an opportunity to visit the campus,—or from what he hears about the college from alumni.

Because of the significance of the latter factor, the alumnus needs to keep himself well informed about the Juniata faculty, campus improvements, student and alumni achievements and in short the "Juniata that does develop."

A common question asked when a new student group enters Juniata is "Why did you select Juniata?" Surveys have been made in the past and again this year it was suggested that a study be made by submitting a questionnaire for answer by students enrolling at Juniata for the first time.

The highest ranking reasons given, in the order of their popularity, were: "It is a small college, the ideas of the college appeal to me, proximity or near location to my home, and low cost of tuition and board." Ranking eight in the total list of 15 reasons mentioned on the questionnaires was "An alumni recommended Juniata."

This year as in former years many freshmen registered because of the influence of a Juniatian or friend of the college. Special recognition should be given to these alumni because of their valuable assistance in sending a student to college hill. These alumni include:

Sixtieth Anniversary Talk

The 60th anniversary of the Juniata College Alumni Association was observed last June third when alumni gathered on the Hill Campus during commencement week to renew old friends and classmates.

One of the highlights of the day's festivities was the talk by Mr. Henry P. Harley, '14 who spoke at the morning meeting of the general association following the meeting of the executive committee.

Mr. Harley's remarks were:

"Looking back twenty-five years a Juniata alumnus is reminded of the old sea captain who said the pilot of a great liner must look ahead a mile and a half. Founders and later faculties of our college with conscientious care peered out over the sea of life and scrutinized rocks of emotion, billows of temptation, and clouds of despair and guided young people who are about to embark on their life's work. This guidance, however, took a positive bend tending to protect students by instilling the spirit of freedom, companionship, and inspiration.

JUNIATA COLLEGE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

October 1939

FELLOW ALUMNI:

First, may I invite your attention to the results of the balloting on the five changes in our Constitution and By-Laws. The favorable vote gives us all an opportunity to forge ahead on what I am pleased to term our TWENTY YEAR PLAN. In other words, our new set-up for membership and finances is based on Juniata's permanent needs rather than on a basis of year to year.

Please read carefully Secretary Brumbaugh's explanatory changes in the Alumni policy. In my opinion, these changes will establish their benefits for many years in the future.

Our officers and Executive Committee are working enthusiastically toward a larger active Alumni membership and with it a greatly increased total of contributions to the College.

The chief object of my message in this column is to ask for your full co-operation and your suggestions from time to time, and above all, to have you feel free at any time to contact the Alumni Office for information and help. Miss Helen McQuade is a full time employee in the Alumni Office working under Secretary Harold Brumbaugh. I am certain that information, statistics, records, and the like are available for immediate answers to your correspondence or request.

June next year may seem a long time ahead but I want you definitely to put June 1 on your "date tickler," it is Alumni Day during Commencement Week. I hope the grads, old and young, will over run College Hill on that day and make even the old College tower tremble for its safety.

You will receive in the near future a letter from me asking for your active membership for '39-40. Harry Wagner president of the Association several years ago rang up a new high in membership. He has dared me to beat his record—and I am going to do it, with his help, for he must be one of the first to sign for the coming year.

Yours for the College "set in a thousand hills,"

WILL JUDY,
President Alumni Association.

NECROLOGY

Mr. Harry W. Petriken, '79Stud. and father of Anne W. Petriken '33AB, died in the J. C. Blair Memorial Hospital, Huntingdon, Pa., on August 10, of heart disease. For many years Mr. Petriken distinguished himself in the criminal courts of Huntingdon and vicinity as a defense attorney.

* * *

Dr. R. M. Hunter died suddenly of a heart attack at his home on Monday evening, September 18. At his death he was 63 years old, having practiced dentistry for the past thirty-six years. He located in Huntingdon in 1911 and rapidly took a part in organized dentistry. He was always held in high esteem by his colleagues in the dental profession. Dr. Hunter was a student at Juniata in 1896.

* * *

Mrs. Fannie W. Rogers, wife of Jacob B. Rogers '85 Stud., died at her home at 1003 18th Ave., Wednesday morning, September 13.

Charles M. Schwab, the Chairman of the Board and founder of Bethlehem Steel Corp., died of heart disease at the age of 77 in his New York apartment on Monday night, September 18. He died a man without a home. The death of his wife last January 12 left him a very sad man and so recently he sold his three estates one of which was not far from Huntingdon at Loretto, Pa., and lived since in New York City. The story of his life is one which reveals a youth, starting from the bottom, and fighting an uphill battle until, through the influence of Andrew Carnegie, he became president of Carnegie Steel Co. and later held the same position in the United States Steel Corp. and Bethlehem Steel Works. Mr. Schwab was a life-long friend of Ex-Governor M. G. Brumbaugh and it was in 1926 while the latter was president of Juniata College that the honorary degree LL.D. was given Mr. Schwab by the College.

Teachers at Juniata lay a bridge between student and God.

"I find the greatest thing in the world," said Oliver Wendell Holmes, "is not so much where we stand as in what direction we are moving." Any improvement around the college whether it be academic or physical involves expenditure of additional funds. We may have been faithful in giving our moral support. Are we faithful when it comes down to 'brass tacks'?"

"In the busy life of today the moments of inspiration are precious. A man's work depends upon the character of the worker. Only good people, people who are good for something, are good teachers. Close friendly contact in the lives of students and faculty here at Juniata inspires a certain dignity and decorum among the alumni which command respect in the business and professional world. The greatest inspiration of all that can come to any person is the one that stirs to activity his religious nature.
